

Upon learning about your new LPFM movement to "enhance community oriented radio broadcasting", I have become increasingly concerned that it will ruin the radio station(s) I currently listen to. The interference to the station(s) I enjoy would be detrimental to my enjoyment of said station(s). I don't feel that local 'community oriented' stations should be allowed to 'step on the toes' of the current larger radio stations. Thank you for your time.